1. This is an application for return of property to the applicant as per the list annexed to the application. It appears that while convicting the accused there was already an order passed for return of property of articles-1 to 31 to the present applicant. Admittedly, there is no stay to the order. In the circumstances, this application is disposed off with the observation that the applicant will be entitled to claim those articles in accordance with the judgment of the lower Court.
